App Store

You're about to leave the app to go to an external website.

Purchases on the Web

All purchases in this app will be processed by a service provider selected by the developer "Hulu, LLC". The developer will be responsible for the payment methods and related features such as subscriptions and refunds.

You will no longer be transacting with Apple.

App Store features, such as your stored App Store payment method, subscription management, and refund requests, will not be available. Learn More

- LP @Dana DuBois do we need any changes to the External Purchase Link API in order to display the [REDACTED] in-app sheet instead of the [REDACTED] one? Or it just the url configured in the bag key? W ant to confirm we're not missing any required changes Also @Matthew Laine if we're going to have a different URL for the learn more story, do we need a separate copy of the sheet anyway , even if it's identical?

we should try to avoid changing the client, as that will limit the OSes this works on. Let's see if we can make this work without changing the client

Dana, does this answer your question? the URL we get the sheet from is `storekit-external-link-sheet-url` but the quip tells the whole story

DD

Dana DuBois

I think it is a question we are trying to answer for Firat 5/15/2023, 11:34 PM UTC what key needs to have what value in the US 5/15/2023, 11:34 PM UTC so the `storekit-external-link-sheet-url` needs to have the same value as the [REDACTED] sheet in the US

So how exactly do we make it happen? Do we need to enable/disable specifics bags for the US?

5/15/2023, 11:38 PM UTC

and then set up a test app? 5/15/2023, 11:38 PM UTC

We're on a 45 day deadline so trying to ensure this is possible asap 5/15/2023, 11:38 PM UTC

this is what needs to happen for an itms11 test:

- enable 'storekit-external-link-sheet-url' in the US storefront with the right URL
- update the [REDACTED] test app (gateway) to contain a target link for "us" in the Info.plist
- run this app in xcode while in itms 11 and test

◦ we can also ingest the app into itms11 app store to test in prod, but the client code is very very similar for both paths

5/15/2023, 11:42 PM UTC

client QA should be able to update the test app info.plist themselves and test in xcode. @Calvin Beckley did this in the past for [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

5/15/2023, 11:45 PM UTC

AS

Who does this piece? "enable storekit-external-link-sheet-url" in the US storefront with the right URL

5/15/2023, 11:46 PM UTC

is "com.apple.developer.storekit.external-purchase-link" the right URL you're referring to?

5/15/2023, 11:47 PM UTC

I'll set up a meeting in the morning with us all to sync on how to test this.

I thought storekit-external-link-sheet-url should already be enabled in the US since [REDACTED] is global

5/15/2023, 11:52 PM UTC

GY

Greg Young

com.apple.developer.storekit.external-purchase-link is the entitlement, that is set in the apps bundle and should be true. this should already be set in the existing [REDACTED] test app

thats the URL for [REDACTED] gateway mode, this was v1 [REDACTED] before

5/15/2023, 11:52 PM UTC

so the [REDACTED] url is already enabled ww but it sounds like we want to enable [REDACTED] gateway mode in the us

5/15/2023, 11:52 PM UTC

:yes1: 1

right now it's only in netherlands (one is in korea too i think?) 5/15/2023, 11:53 PM UTC

:yes1: 1

so the bag key corresponds to the API. if the bag key is missing the API indicates unavailability in the current config

5/15/2023, 11:54 PM UTC

██████████ API is functioning ww because the bag key exists ww . if we want the ██████████ gateway API to enable in a storefront we need to enable the bag key

5/15/2023, 11:54 PM UTC

the bag key can point to any web app we want. so we just have to set the ██████████ gateway bag key to point to the ██████████ web app in the US

5/15/2023, 11:55 PM UTC

:perfecto: 1
